(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the details of the proposals cleared by the Union Government?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (SHRIMATI JAYAWANTI MEHTA)

(a) to (c) : The power projects to be set up by various State Governments are funded out of their State Power Plan outlay which is decided by the respective State Governments within the approved overall State Plan size.No specific proposal has been exclusively received from the Government of Maharashtra for setting up of a project. For the Annual Plan 2001-02, the Government of Maharashtra had proposed an outlay of Rs.1558.16 crore, which has been recommended by the Working Group. The State Government has also been provided Rs.134.44 crore under Accelerated Power Development Programme during 2000-01.
